

Oberlin Students partner with UH Elyria for “Gratitude Showers Challenge”

Back in January, a group of Oberlin students began a collaboration with a nearby hospital. Now those students and others have begun a new initiative to support that hospital’s staff.

The Gratitude Showers Challenge honors the dedication and sacrifice of healthcare professionals at University Hospitals Elyria Medical Center. In recent weeks, the project has been further reenvisioned to involve the creativity of area children and to support a key fundraising initiative at the hospital.

Read Erich Burnett’s article here.

The virtual challenge will run from Monday, May 4, through May 11 and kicks off with a broadcast on YouTube on May 4 from 7:15 to 10:00 pm — details are available on Facebook. It also serves as an opportunity for participants to pledge to the UH Elyria Community Response Fund.

Published on ClevelandClassical.com April 30, 2020.

Click here for a printable copy of this article

Return to the Front Page.